SAINT OF THE WEEK Saint Philip Neri

Living during the 16th Century, Philip was a priest noted as an outstanding confessor, gifted with the knack of piercing the pretenses and illusions of others, though always in a charitable manner and often with a joke. He arranged talks, discussions, and prayers for his penitents in a room above the church. He sometimes led "excursions" to other churches, often with music and a picnic on the way. Philip combined an attractive and jocular personality with intense spirituality. His life melts our rigid, narrow views of piety. His approach to sanctify was truly catholic, all-embracing, and accompanied with a good laugh. Philip always wanted his followers to become not less but more human through their striving for holiness. His feast day is May 26.
